Re: Grace Sells Certain Alltech® HPLC and MODcol® Preparative Chromatography Product Lines to Dr. A.Maisch High Performance LC GmbH (" Dr. A. Maisch GmbH")

Dear Chromatography Customer:

We are writing to you as a valued customer to inform you of a recent development related to the Exmere™ chromatography media, associated Alltech® HPLC column brands as well a MODcol® columns and related Prep chromatography lines of Grace Discovery Sciences. I am pleased to announce that Grace has entered into an agreement to sell these product lines to Dr. A. Maisch GmbH. As such, the following brands will now be offered globally by Dr. Maisch:

- Exsil™ and Exmere™ media brands
- Associated HPLC column brands, including Adsorbosphere™, Allsphere™, Brava™, Econosphere™, Platinum™, and VisionHT® columns
- MODcol® preparative chromatography brands, including Spring® columns, Multipacker® packing equipment, all associated hardware, replacement parts, and packing services
- Packed preparative columns containing Vydac® chromatography media. Vydac® media will continue to be supplied by Grace

HPLC columns currently branded GraceSmart™ columns also will be sold to Dr. A. Maisch GmbH under the agreement. However, Dr. A. Maisch GmbH will offer the GraceSmart™ columns under its own brand following a brief transition period.

Dr. A. Maisch GmbH, a high quality manufacturer and supplier of chromatography products who has been operating in the international market for many years, will take over ownership of these product lines effective immediately. Please direct any orders for the product lines mentioned above to:

Any orders from this point forward sent to Grace Discovery Sciences will be forwarded to Dr. A. Maisch.

We appreciate your loyalty to the Grace and Alltech brands over the years and your understanding during this transitional period.

Best Regards,

Robert Gatte
